Ratisbon, Jan. 23. Letters from Vienna advise, that a Conference was held by Prince Eugene on the 9th Instant, at which the Venetian Ambassadour assisted. On the 12th a Courier was to go with the last Orders to the Imperial Resident at Constantinople. Letters from Segedin of the 12th of this Month advise, that the Tartars kept themselves ready to march on the first Orders; and tho' the common Discourse amongst them was, that they were to make an Inroad into Transylvania in three Places, yet nothing positive could be said till they had Orders from the Port to break up. The Turks had doubled their Preparations for the War, and it was said would open the Campaign by the Attack of the Island Sidra near the Morea. There was a Report that Ragotzi and Bereczeni were in Turkey.
